Deonté Griffin-Quick is a dynamic, award-winning actor, cultural leader, and minister whose work sits at the intersection of faith, art, and culture. As the founder of DGQ Culture, he equips faith-rooted creatives and organizations with the strategy, vision, and tools to expand their influence and fulfill their divine purpose.

A gifted communicator and revivalist at heart, Deonté brings both spiritual depth and engaging stage presence to every platform he graces. He accepted his call to ministry in 2017 and currently serves at Destiny Living Ministries in Cranford, NJ. Professionally, Deonté has made a significant mark on the arts and culture sector at both regional and national levels. As an actor, he has performed on stages throughout the Tri-State region.

Deonté holds a Bachelor of Arts in Theatre with a minor in Communications from Kean University and a Master's degree in Arts Administration from Drexel University.
